Thank you for your donation to WabiSabi of:

WabiSabi is a nonprofit organization founded to serve as a community hub by:

- Raising funds and conducting educational outreach for our nonprofit partners.
- Donating material goods to communities and organizations in need.
- Funding innovative projects that positively benefit our community through the Make a Difference in Moab Fund.
- Strengthen Moab's nonprofit community through the WabiSabi Nonprofit Network.

By donating to WabiSabi you generally can deduct the fair market value of the property at the time of the contribution.

Fair market value is the price at which property would change hands between a willing buyer and a willing seller, neither having to buy or sell, and both having reasonable knowledge of all the relevant facts. The fair market value of used clothing, household items and other personal items is usually far less than the price you paid for them. There are no fixed formulas or methods for finding the value of items of clothing. You should claim as the value the price that buyers of used items actually pay in used clothing stores, such as consignment or thrift shops. To be deductible, clothing and household items donated to charity after Aug. 17, 2006, must be in good used condition or better. However, a taxpayer may claim a deduction of more than $500 for any single item, regardless of its condition, if the taxpayer includes a qualified appraisal of the item with the return. Household items include furniture, furnishings, electronics, appliances, and linens.
